

Mini Sector Sessions

St John Henry Newman Catholic School

St John Henry Newman Catholic School host mini sector sessions as part of their half-termly Careers Week.

Employers visit the school to talk to students about a specific sector and the various career options it offers.

Sessions take place during registration between 8.50 am to 9.10 am so they can be easily accommodated into the timetable.

The school worked with Inspira through The Link who organised employer representatives from a wide range of sectors including finance and accounting, nuclear, sport, museums and the third sector, as well as the Police and NHS.

Businesses and organisations visited* the school and gave short presentations followed by informative Q&A session. The participating organisations included:

- Armstrong Watson
- Truly Online Financial Advisers
- Sellafield
- Eden Valley Hospice
- Cumbria CVS
- Cumbria Constabulary
- NHS – Nursing and Midwifery
- Cumbria's Museum of Military Life
- Carlisle United

* Talks by three employers were postponed to a later date due to Covid restrictions.

64 students took part in the activity and the feedback was extremely positive, rating the sessions as excellent/very good.

